LOVELY REVIEW FROM BRITANNICA TRAVELS

"Situated in the South Lakes, The Villa Levens is a 140 year old Victorian house which has now been fully restored into a 22 bedroome hotel. Our stay here was as fascinating as its history. Originally a family home, The Villa Levens has been transformed into the Levens Hotel, later to become accommodation for single mothers and babies and then it was used as a retreat for youth groups such as Scouts and Brownies. In 2014, Simon Rigby bought the magnificent building and transformed it into the beautiful hotel that it is today. We had a fairy tale experience in The Villa Levens. The staff were incredibly attentive and friendly. The breakfast area has a beautiful view of the forest nearby and the food was always fresh and tasty. The entire estate including our room was spotless throughout and as per Covid 19 regulations, no staff member was allowed in the room. However, if we needed to change towels and toiletries or had any other requirements, the personnel was quick to help us. From the hotel there is a short distance to The Levens Deer Park where you can go for a refreshing walk and have a magical encounter with the black fallow deers."
